Mr. N.K.Sharma for the Applicant.

CORAM : R.S. MOHITE,J.
DATED : 07/6/2006.

P.C.

1. This is an application for grant of anticipatory bail. The applicant is shown as an accused in C.R.No.I-169/2006 registered by Sakinaka Police Station. His father and mother are other two accused in this case. On perusing the F.I.R. lodged by one Rukayya who has suffered minor injury on the head, it is clear that the incident in question arose out of a minor incident wherein the sister of the applicant Khurshid was burning some papers outside her house on 2.5.2006 and therefore, quarrel started between the parents of the present applicant and the accused. According to the F.I.R., the parents of the applicant caught hold the complainant and beat her with stick which was in his hand on her hands and head. Rukayya was in hospital for about four days. Investigating papers however, show that the father of the present applicant was also admitted in the hospital and he was in hospital for the period of six days.

There is no mention in the F.I.R. as to how he suffered injuries such as tenderness of chest. The Doctor has recorded the history of unconsciousness. Taking an over all view of the matter, this is a fit case for grant of anticipatory bail. The parents of the applicants have already released on anticipatory bail. Cross case is also registered by the police on the assault caused on the father of the applicant. In the circumstances, it is directed that in the event of arrest the applicant may be released on bail in the sum of Rs.10,000/- with one surety in the like amount subject to condition that he will report to Sakinaka Police Station once in a week on every Monday from 10.00 a.m. to 5.00p.m.till the charge-sheet is filed.
